

Leaders for Tomorrow: Rural Women Creating Change

Saturday, February 7

10 am - 9 pm

Sunday, February 8

9 am - 1 pm

Sacred Heart Parish Hall, 417 Lincoln Street, Davidson, Saskatchewan

An opportunity to meet with rural and city women of all ages who are creating positive change, to learn something new and to have fun and relax.

Sat. am: What rural women say about the well-being of themselves and their communities. Displays and discussion highlighting what is being done to improve the situations affecting well-being for all rural and farm women.

pm: Supporting rural women in their current leadership roles and encouraging them in new roles. Communication methods to get the accomplishments and views of rural women more widely recognized.

Saturday evening: Supper at 5:30 pm.

Talk at 7:00 pm by

Jeanne Martinson

Martrain Corporate and Personal Development

“Personal Leadership for Women Making a Difference”

Sun. am: How women can keep their energies high - discussion and relaxation with yoga. Leadership training needed for rural women. Looking to the future - creating links between rural women and others in Saskatchewan.

There is no admission charge, but participants are asked to register for part or all of the event, to facilitate planning for meals and accommodations. Please call (306) 585-5727 or e-mail pwhce@uregina.ca

Sponsored by the Rural Women's Issues Committee of Saskatchewan. Website <http://www.ruralwomensask.ca>

Status of Women
Canada

Condition féminine
Canada

Thanks to the Women's Program, Status of Women Canada and Prairie Women's Health Centre of Excellence for funding & support.

PRAIRIE WOMEN'S HEALTH

CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE

RESEARCH ■ POLICY ■ COMMUNITY